Young leaders from across the globe are outlining their visions for a better future at a UN-sponsored meeting in Azerbaijan.

Their "Narratives of Tomorrow" are being shared during the 7th UN Alliance of Civilizations Global Forum which opened in the capital, Baku, on Monday.

May Yaacoub is at the forum where she met Juliet Aniango who is with the Youth Interfaith Council in Kaduna, located in northern Nigeria.

The group brings together Muslim and Christian communities in efforts to foster peace in a region that has seen sectarian violence and terrorist activity.

Juliet talks about the value of inclusive societies.
