

Solutions for many problems can be found at UNAOC Baku forum – diplomat

23 APRIL 2016, 12:59 (GMT+04:00)

Positive decisions will be made at the 7th Global Forum of the UN Alliance of Civilizations (UNAOC) in Baku, Latvia's ambassador to Azerbaijan Juris Maklakovs told Trend Apr. 22.

"The UN is an authoritative international organization," the ambassador said. "The [Forum's] agenda includes the most pressing issues."

"The topic of the 7th UNAOC Global Forum - Living Together In Inclusive Societies: A Challenge and A Goal - coincides with multiculturalism, which is Azerbaijan's priority chosen this year," the ambassador added.

He said these forums provide an opportunity for participants from different countries to find a more appropriate solution to a particular issue.

The ambassador added that Latvia will be represented at the forum by Zanda Kalnina-Lukashevich, the parliamentary secretary to the foreign ministry.

"Latvia is interested in looking for the best solutions on the topic of the forum," the diplomat added.

The 7th UNAOC Global Forum will be held in Baku Apr. 25-27.

It is planned to hold a meeting with participation of high-ranking officials and about 30 sessions during the Forum.

The Baku Declaration is expected to be adopted during the high-level meeting of the UNAOC Global Forum.

Azerbaijan's President Ilham Aliyev signed a decree on July 24, 2015 to create an organizing committee for holding the 7th UNAOC Global Forum in Baku.
