

Investing in Youth-Led Organizations to Advance the Youth, Peace and Security Agenda:

A DATA-DRIVEN APPROACH

9 April 2019, 3:00 p.m. to 4:45 p.m., UNHQ Conference Room E

A side event at the 2019 ECOSOC Youth Forum

UNAOC, in partnership with the Permanent Mission of Spain, Permanent Mission of Finland, UNFPA, PBSO and Search for Common Ground, will be hosting a side event at the ECOSOC Youth Forum. The topic will be Investing in Youth-Led Organizations to Advance the Youth, Peace and Security Agenda: A Data-Driven Approach. The event will focus on the evidence for funding and supporting youth-led organizations working in the field of peace and security. It will also be a broader call to reflect on the need for a results-based approach, and for entities to convene around monitoring and evaluation for youth engagement.

UNAOC
United Nations Alliance of Civilizations

MISIÓN PERMANENTE
DE ESPAÑA ANTE
LAS NACIONES UNIDAS

Permanent Mission of Finland to the United Nations

Investing in Youth-Led Organizations to Advance the Youth, Peace and Security Agenda: A DATA-DRIVEN APPROACH

9 April 2019, 3:00 p.m. to 4:45 p.m., UNHQ Conference Room E

Amb. Agustín Santos Maraver
Permanent Representative of Spain to the United Nations

Amb. Kai Sauer
Permanent Representative of Finland to the United Nations

Alessandro Girola
*Programming Coordinator,
United Nations Alliance of Civilizations (UNAOC)*

Abiodun Rufus Unegbu
Executive Director of the Leadership Initiative for Youth Empowerment (Nigeria)

Youness Ben-Abbou
*International Project
Coordinator of Chantiers
Sociaux Marocains (Morocco)*

Solvi Karlsson
Program Manager – Children and Youth, Search for Common Ground

Michael McGill
Author of the independent evaluation report for the Youth Solidarity Fund

Cecile Mazzacurati
*Head of Secretariat for the Progress
Study on Youth, Peace & Security,
UNFP/PBSO*

Vanessa Suen
*Project Management Specialist
– Youth and Innovation, UNAOC*