SPEAKERS

H.E. Mr. António Guterres
United Nations Secretary-General

H.E. Mr. António Guterres, the ninth Secretary-General of the United Nations, took office on 1st January 2017. Having witnessed the suffering of the most vulnerable people on earth, he is determined to make human dignity the core of his work, and to serve as a peace broker, a bridge-builder and a promoter of reform and innovation. Prior to his appointment as Secretary-General, he served as United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees from June 2005 to December 2015, heading one of the world's foremost humanitarian organizations during some of the most serious displacement crises in decades. Previously, he spent 20+ years in government and public service, including as prime minister of Portugal (1995-2002), and president of the European Council in early 2000, during which he co-chaired the first European Union-Africa summit. From 1981 to 1983, he was a member of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe, where he chaired the Committee on Demography, Migration and Refugees. In addition, he founded the Portuguese Refugee Council, and served as president of the Centro de Acção Social Universitário, an association carrying out social development projects in poor neighborhoods of Lisbon, in the early 1970s.

H.E. Mr. Nassir Abdulaziz Al-Nasser
High Representative for the United Nations Alliance of Civilizations

H.E. Mr. Nassir Abdulaziz Al-Nasser assumed his position as the High Representative for the United Nations Alliance of Civilizations on 1 March 2013. Throughout his career, he has contributed to advancing the multilateral agenda in the realms of peace and security, sustainable development and South-South cooperation. Previously, he held the position of President of the 66th Session of the United Nations General Assembly from 2011 to 2012. Since 1998, he has represented Qatar in the United Nations and has worked on core issues such as security, terrorism, poverty, hunger, and natural disasters. He has received numerous awards and honorary doctorates from various countries and universities for his work on fostering cross-cultural understanding.

H.E. Mr. Alfonso María Dastis
Minister of Foreign Affairs and Cooperation of Spain

H.E. Mr. Alfonso María Dastis served as a Legal Advisor and Diplomat for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and in the Office of the President of the Government. He was an advisor at Spain's Permanent Representation to the United Nations in New York; Director of the Support Unit of the Organising Committee of the Spanish Rotating Presidency of the EU in 2002, and Secretary-General for Foreign Affairs of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Cooperation between 2002 and 2004. Prior to his appointment as the Minister for Foreign Affairs and Cooperation, he was the Spanish Ambassador to the Netherlands (2004-2007) and to the European Union in Brussels (2011-2016).

Sheikh Imad Abed Al-Hamid Al-Falouji
Chairman of the Adam Center for Dialogue of Civilizations in Gaza

Born in the Jabalya Camp in Gaza, Sheikh Imad Abed Al-Hamid Al-Falouji was one of the five founders of Hamas and the movement spokesperson. In 2009, Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas appointed him as a member of the Islamic-Christian commission for patronizing Jerusalem and the holy sites. Today, he works to promote religious peace values in cooperation with the Mosaica Center.
