PLURAL+ Youth Media Makers Against Racism
 A Virtual Watch Party featuring PLURAL+ Winners

📅 Friday, 26 June 2020, 10:00 AM EDT 📺 Watch Live: www.facebook.com/unaoc.org

“Racism is an affront to universal human values and rights. We need to stand up collectively and peacefully against racism as one humanity towards a society free of discrimination.”

H.E. Mr. Miguel Ángel Moratinos,
 High Representative
 for UNAOC

UNAOC and the International Organization for Migration (IOM) organized a virtual “watch party” with a selection of short films from their joint initiative, the PLURAL+ Youth Video Festival, which all conveyed a message of unity against racism and all forms of discrimination. The High Representative for UNAOC and the Director General of IOM, H.E. Mr. António Vitorino, participated in the event, which featured short films produced by filmmakers as young as seven years old from across the globe. (26 June)

On the occasion of the 75th Anniversary of the UN, Mr. Moratinos was a panelist in an online conference entitled “Shared Future – Shared Responsibility,” organized by the Nizami Ganjavi International Center and the Marianna V. Vardinoyannis Foundation.

Mr. Moratinos emphasized the importance of multilateralism and reiterated UNAOC’s commitment to bringing together diverse cultures and identities. (23 June)

Ms. Nihal Saad, UNAOC Chief of Cabinet and Spokesperson, and Ms. Ana Jimenez, Political Advisor, participated in an online discussion to discuss the priorities and areas of work of MFAC including gender equality, climate change, and social inclusion. (23 June)

PROGRAMMING HIGHLIGHTS

UNAOC selected eleven young leaders from Europe and North America (EUNA region) and eleven young leaders from the Middle East and North Africa (MENA region) to participate in its 2020 Fellowship Programme focusing on the theme “Building Peace in the Age of New Media”. UNAOC Fellows from each geographic area will have the opportunity to meet key stakeholders from their counterparts’ region. They will be provided with crucial tools to help them understand the plurality and complexity of their counterparts’ culture, politics, society, religion, and media. (11 June)

UNAOC Programming Coordinator Mr. Alessandro Girola organized two capacity-building webinars as part of UNAOC and BMW Group’ joint initiative, the Intercultural Innovation Award (IIA), in partnership with Accenture. Current IIA recipients were trained in “Public Speaking for Effective Communication” (4 June) and “Social Styles and Leadership” (15 June), which provided them with the tools to lead their projects effectively, and develop their abilities to deliver impactful messages about the important work of their organizations.

Ms. Magdalen Amony, a recipient of UNAOC and BMW Group’s joint initiative, the Intercultural Innovation Award, was featured by the UN Department of Global Communications’ new global campaign “Verified” to present her project “Child Soldier Reintegration Project”, which has combatted misinformation and fake news in Uganda amid the current health crisis. Her grassroots project also helps former child soldiers reconcile with their war-affected communities in northern Uganda through innovative activities focused on dialogue. (25 June)

UNAOC Programme Officers Mr. Thibault Chareton and Mrs. Paloma Haschke-Joseph, Ph.D. organized an interactive discussion with refugee students on the issue of hate speech against migrants and refugees in traditional and new media and ways to combat it. The event was part of the interactive online conference “Amplify Now”, organized by Kiron – Open Higher Education for Refugees, which brought together refugees, NGOs, academics, and the private sector to foster collaborative exchanges around the theme “Elevating new learning and strengthening communities”. Under the scope of UNAOC’s #SpreadNoHate initiative, UNAOC Fellows shared their research and perspectives concerning hate speech in small-group discussions, encouraging refugee students to identify and develop new ways of recognizing hate speech against migrants and refugees and methods to counter it.
